

Neil Balfour

BARITONE

BIOGRAPHY

Indian-Scottish Neil Balfour is an award-winning British Baritone and Voiceover Artist. He started musical life as a pianist, punk-rocker and conductor, graduating from Leeds College of Music, the Royal Northern College of Music and the National Opera Studio, before falling in love with all-things-voice to tell stories. A former Britten-Pears, Samling, Momentum and Concordia artist, he has performed at the Glastonbury Festival and is the first to beatbox in an opera at Longborough Festival Opera.

In the upcoming season engagements include Jacob Displaced (world premiere) for CoAlign; Bartley Riders to the Sea for OperaUpClose; Handel's Israel in Egypt for the Yorkshire Philharmonic Choir; Mr. Noye Noye's Fludde; Love is a Spectrum (a recital celebrating neuro-divergence) for Thaxted Festival; and the premiere of Untold Lives (a new song cycle about Indian Soldiers in WWI created by Neil Balfour and Cheryl Frances-Hoad) for Oxford International Song Festival.

Highlights in recent seasons include his American debut as Father Thumbprint for Portland Opera; Prince Yamadori Madama Butterfly and The Shoemaker (world premiere) for Welsh National Opera; Alice Through the Looking Glass (world premiere) for the London Symphony Orchestra; Jean Arp Sophie (world premiere) for Tête à Tête; a recital with Roderick Williams for Thaxted Festival and recitals on Schumann and Sondheim for Oxford International Song Festival.

Operatic performances include Maslenitsa The Snowmaiden (English Touring Opera); Colline La bohème (Mananan Opera & OFMAN Madrid Opera Studio); Mercurio La Calisto (Longborough Festival Opera); Don Alfonso Così fan tutte, Quince A midsummer night's dream and Lord Ellington La vie Parisienne (RNCM); Eustache The Six of Calais (Pegasus Opera); Diktator Der Diktator and Guillermo Kahlo Frida (Northern Opera Group); Dottore Grenvil La Traviata (Devon Opera); Cold Genius King Arthur (Glastonbury Festival); Broadcaster The Flying Dutchman (OperaUpClose); Young Artist Macbeth (Buxton International Festival) and the nationwide tours of Aida and Fidelio (Chorus of Opera North). He has also understudied Figaro Le nozze di Figaro (Longborough Festival Opera).

Contemporary opera roles created for Neil include Ibn Al-Haytham Al-Haytham's light and Texy/ Everywhere Back into the world (English Touring Opera); Jacob Displaced (CoAlign); Jean Arp Sophie (Tête à Tête Opera festival); Father Mysterious 44 (the first electronic opera); Dad/La-La A shoe full of stars (YAM Awards Best Opera 2018); King Hrothgar Beowulf (Proper Job Theatre); Punch Crocodile (a dark-web animated opera) and Navin The End of the World Party (Hull Urban Opera).

Concert performances have included Gershwin's Porgy & Bess (Leeds Philharmonic Orchestra); Haydn's Mass in time of War; Bach's St. Matthew Passion as well as an eclectic mix of song recitals for Leeds Lieder, &Piano, Britten-Pears Arts and the Leeds Opera Festival.

Neil is the first classical artist for sE Electronics and NORD (world-leading microphones & digital pianos), director of ArtSongStory (compelling videos of art-song) and is proud to be supported by Penhaligon's British Perfumers, VivoBarefoot shoes, Mason Cycles, Hunt Wheels and Tailfin Bikepacking equipment. His work as a voiceover artist has had over 100 million plays.

Outside of opera, Neil is a keen barista, climber and adventure cyclist.